Vigilante trio jailed for 44 years after brutal attack

MUM: 'THEY MAY AS WELL HAVE MURDERED HIM'

By Mathew Di Salvo
mathew@taylornewspapers.co.uk

A MUM of Basingstoke brothers jailed for 31 years for brutally attacking an innocent man who they blamed for their sister's death said her sons may as well have murdered their victim.

Serial criminal Raymond Collins smiled as he was led out the dock of Portsmouth Crown Court on Friday after being handed an 18-year prison sentence.

The 33-year-old shouted to his family: "Don't worry, we're gonna appeal against it anyway."

Raymond Collins, of Penny Black Lane, has committed 90 previous offences.

Brother Gary Collins, 34, of Worting Road, got 13 years for his part in the attack in which 50-year-old Jason Webb was stabbed through the cheek and beaten with a bike, mirror and parts of a vacuum cleaner.

Their mum Janet Harmsworth, 59, said: "The sentence is wrong, they might as well of murdered him, not even a murderer would get that sentence."

Attacker smiles as judge jails him

• From front page

A jury heard the brothers stabbed Mr Webb in a bid to find out why their sister died of a drug overdose during the Winchester Crown Court trial.

Mrs Harmsworth added: "I've been in bits since my daughter died.

"If I go and see my boys it has to be separate, I can't see them both together.

"They haven't even seen their sister's grave."

Raymond Collins' girlfriend, Sabrina Riley, 28, has a three-year-old daughter and 11-month-old baby boy with him.

She said: "I think it's appalling. How am I going to explain it to my kids?"

The brothers, alongside female accomplice Samantha Lee, 28, of Winkleberry Centre, attacked Mr Webb at his home in Buckskin's Pentland Close after binge drinking on February 11.

Judge Linda Sullivan QC said: "The jury find you guilty of a premeditated, vigilante attack on an innocent man because you believed falsely that he had something to do with the death of your sister and friend.

She added: "It is suggested on your behalf that because you were suffering from bereavement from the death of your sister that this somehow gave you the right to go and attack an innocent man.

"You had no idea at that stage how your sister met her death.

"You falsely took it upon yourself to decide that this innocent victim was responsible and you falsely decided to take up vengeance and attack him."

Mr Webb was slashed with knives, stamped on and drop kicked.

The gang, who denied charges of wounding with intent and possession of an offensive weapon throughout the week-long trial, were found guilty on August 15.

Lee was also jailed for 13 years.

But Raymond Collins was given five years longer because Judge Sullivan said he poses a "significant risk to the public".

Prosecutor David Reid told the court he was in breach of a suspended sentence and community order, and he had attacked police officers several times.

Lee and Gary Collins had also committed offences of battery.

Charles Durrant, defending Lee, asked for clemency for her as the mum of a nine-year-old son who plays an "enormously prominent role" in his life.

Her parents will now be looking after him.

"You sure showed no clemency to your victim when he was repeatedly telling you he had nothing to do with the death of your sister," Judge Sullivan told the trio.

"He was fortunate he was not much more seriously injured."

Plans for 100 homes in Beggarwood

PLANS to build more than 100 homes and a community hall next to Basingstoke Golf Club are being considered by the council.

A planning application for 58 houses, 43 flats, a civic hall and takeaway off Beggarwood Lane was submitted to Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council last month.

The plans - by Bellway Homes Ltd – were redesigned after concerns raised by the council in July that they would overcrowd the site.

Plans for development of the Beggarwood site have been in the pipeline for four years.

Basingstoke councillor Terri Reid, of Hatch Warren and Beggarwood, said: "I want to see how residents feel and I will judge the suitability of the site on their reactions.

"There is definitely a need for more houses in Basingstoke and a need for community facilities in Beggarwood."

The 2.49 hectares of green land would see 31 one-bed apartments, 13 two-bed apartments, three two-bed houses, 25 three-bed houses, 20 four-bed houses and nine five-bed.

Of these, 40 would be affordable homes.

The site is south-east of Kennel Farm which was recently approved planning permission for 310 homes.

It is also next to a site earmarked for 1,000 homes by Basingstoke Golf Club in Basingstoke council's Local Plan.

Cllr Reid added: "I am worried it could put a strain on the provision of services.

"I would like to see better of schools and doctors surgeries – there is only one in Hatch Warren and Beggarwood.

"Pressure on infrastructure is something to be concerned about."

A play area had been planned but the council's public open space officer recommended a cash contribution to improving Beggarwood Park instead.

A pre-application was shown to the council in January.

A letter by Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council sent in July said: "Concerns have been raised about the site being too densely populated, with an over-urbanised street scene out of character with its location on the edge of Basingstoke."

The application states: "The design team responded to these concerns by re-evaluating the proposed layout and incorporating substantial amendments to minimise the urban characteristics of the scheme."

A consultation launched last week until October 15.

A target decision date has been set for December 15.

'Stoke boys on road to X Factor stardom

BASINGSTOKE'S very own pop stars wowed judges to bag their place in the last six groups on X Factor aired on Sunday.

By Mathew Di Salvo
mathew@taylornewspapers.co.uk

It means Concept – five 20-year-old friends - have made it through the tough X Factor bootcamp and go on to the judges' houses stage.

Band member Nathan Gittens said: "We have to get through judges houses first, and this is the hardest stage, as everything you've ever wanted is now so close, but it can be taken away from you with one word.

"That's the hardest thing for all of us."

Matt Goodenough, Ben Selley, Nathan Gittens, Scott Dicks and Karim Newton all went to Basingstoke's Queen Mary's College.

The boys first met through a mutual love of football and originally started out as a four-piece band in 2010.

Scott said: "We're all so close and have known each other for years, so we know each other inside out.

"This obviously makes it a lot easier to help one another through the experience as we can tell how everyone is feeling all the time."

Despite having no real musical background, the group got four yeses from judges Mel B, Simon Cowell, Cheryl Fernandez-Versini and Louis Walsh, who is now mentoring the group.

It was Louis who handed the boys one of his final six spots after their rendition of Snow Patrol's Run.

Louis said: "It was your best performance yet."

Matt said: "It's a lot of fun, having him as a mentor.

"Louis is a really great guy, and he is hilarious!

"He also has so much musical knowledge and really cares about his acts, so he's a great mentor."

Karim said: "Bootcamp was crazy!

"It was tough and draining as the days were so long but it was extremely enjoyable.

"You get so close to other contestants, as you all look out for each other because you know and understand what everyone is going through."

See Concept on X Factor on ITV One this Saturday and Sunday at judges' houses at 8pm.

Site not suitable for gypsy camp Maria Miller warns

CONCERNS have been raised over an already controversial planning application for a gypsy caravan site in Sherfield on Loddon.

Basingstoke MP Maria Miller yesterday threw her weight behind a campaign to oppose plans for three touring caravans, three mobile homes, and three wooden buildings with kitchens and bathrooms in Dixon Road.

The application, submitted in August, has a target determination date of next Thursday, October 9.

Residents and councillors in June raised an alarm that over 500 trees were illegally axed on the site.

Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council was granted a court injunction the same month to halt the felling of more trees.

MP Maria Miller said A33 traffic by Dixon Road is already very busy and Dixon Road is owned by Ministry of Defence, who use it for vehicles at nearby MOD Bramley training camp.

She said: "The site's owners do not have the Ministry of Defence's permission to use Dixon Road for access, which is what they are proposing.

"But however the owner's vehicles access the site, they will add to traffic on the A33, which is already heavily congested and would present a significant safety concern.

"This cannot be allowed to go ahead."

Councillor Elaine Still said: "Access onto the A33 single carriageway is dangerous.

She added: "I will be objecting to the application."

Firm fined after man crushed by machine

A BASINGSTOKE company could have avoided an accident in which a man was crushed between a steel post and crane-like truck, a Health and Safety Executive (HSE) inspector ruled.

By Mathew Di Salvo
mathew@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Basing View firm RVC Engineering Ltd was fined £6,000 last week after being prosecuted by HSE at Winchester Crown Court on September 24.

The worker was acting as a lookout when he was trapped by a telehandler at a workshop in West Drayton, near London, on September 25 last year.

The 42-year-old had to have his spleen and most of his pancreas removed.

After the hearing, HSE inspector Pete Collingwood said: "A worker suffered a very serious injury from what was perceived to be an innocuous operation.

"It was an entirely preventable injury as the manoeuvre could have been conducted without the need for his involvement."

The broken-down telehandler was being shunted into the company's workshop by an HGV.

The man was asked to act as a lookout while an HGV pushed the telehandler the few feet needed into the workshop.

He was trapped for a few minutes before being freed.

Mr Collingwood added: "Crush injuries are common from reversing vehicles in industry.

"RVC Engineering should have planned this operation carefully despite it being of a short duration and then ensured the whole thing was adequately supervised."

RVC Engineering Ltd, of Springpark House, admitted a breach of the Health and Safety at Work Act.

They were also ordered to pay was also ordered to pay £1,087 costs for the Section 2(1) breach.

It states: "It shall be the duty of every employer to ensure, so far as is reasonably practicable, the health, safety and welfare at work of all his employees."

The man had to spend four months in the hospital after the injury and is yet to return to work - but is hoping to start work again soon.

RVC Engineering Ltd declined to comment when approached by the Basingstoke Observer.

OCT will give accurate diagnosis:

- AMD
- Diabetic Maculopathy
- Macular Hole
- Epiretinal Membrane
- Early detection of Glaucoma

*It is estimated that approximately 2% of people over the age of 40 will have Glaucoma.

*Statistics obtained from The International Glaucoma Association.

What is an OCT scan?

This practice has invested in the very latest OCT scanning technology.

An Optical Coherence Tomography (OCT) scan is a unique test which uses near-infrared light reflected off the retina to produce a high resolution 3-Dimensional scan of the retina and associated structures.

It is particularly useful in the assessment of patients with AMD, Diabetic Maculopathy, early detection of Glaucoma and the management of these diseases. The test is non invasive, quick and entirely painless.

Am I at risk of Glaucoma?

Are you over 40?
Do you have a family history of Glaucoma?
Are you short sighted?
Do you have diabetes?
Are you of African-Caribbean origin?

If the answer is yes to any of these questions, then you are at an increased risk and should definitely have your eyes tested regularly.*

Why has this practice invested in OCT?

We believe this advanced imagery allows us to detect and monitor early stages of diseases and as this examination is not available under the NHS, we make an additional charge for this scan. Please ask for further details.

This assessment of your eyes using OCT Technology will give us the most accurate diagnosis possible and help us give you the best advice to protect your sight and the health of your eyes.

Go ahead given to 400 homes at Razor's Farm

THE Government has given permission for more than 400 homes to be built between Chineham and Bramley.

Eric Pickles, Secretary of State for Communities and Local Government, approved controversial plans on appeal last week for 425 homes at Razor's Farm.

Developers Croudace Strategic Ltd took their case to Government last September after Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council took too long to decide on the planning application.

Croudace - planning the development on behalf of Barton Willmore Homes – submitted the application in December 2012.

But Basingstoke council overran the target eight weeks to decide on planning applications.

Allan Carey, the deputy chief executive of Croudace Strategic Ltd, said: "We are delighted to have been successful in our appeal.

"We now have to submit a reserved matters planning application and that will mean it is unlikely construction will start until next year."

But councillors have hit back at the decision.

Basingstoke councillor Elaine Still said: "I am extremely disappointed.

"We are all very much against the development because of the infrastructure deficit we have on this side of town.

"We have had our fair share of development over here. To keep cramming more homes on this side of town is not right."

Councillor Martin Biermann added: "There will have to be major changes.

"There is no room in the nearest school so children would have to go to Great Binfields and to get there, they would have to cross the A33.

"The doctors surgery in Chineham is overburdened. It cannot take on extra, doctors are complaining already.

"The outcome of the appeal is unjust for the community."

Mr Pickles' decision came on the recommendation of planning inspector Paul Griffiths.

Basingstoke's need for housing was one of the reasons he cited in his decision report.

Huw Edwards, partner in Barton Willmore's Ebbsfleet office, said: "We have always been mindful of the emerging need for houses in the borough, and although in an ideal world we would have received planning permission at the local level, our decision has so far paid off."

Pictures of Naomi House refurb released

WORK to refurbish a children's hospice near Basingstoke is underway.

Naomi House, in Sutton Scotney, is in the process of having a £4million revamp and photos taken from a local helicopter show the progress of building work, which started in July.

The hospice provides support to families of children with life-limiting and life-threatening illnesses.

A bridge will link Naomi House and Jacksplace, another hospice, and the two sites will share a new hydrotherapy pool.

Keith Wilson, the senior communications officer at Naomi House and Jacksplace, said: "Seeing the scale of work that has taken place at the hospice from the air really puts into perspective just how much has been achieved during the early stages of our building project.

He continued: "The teams have been working very hard and we can already see the shape of the hospice's impressive new footprint.

"However, we can also visualise just how much is still to be done.

"While the steel frame from our new 'hub' may be in place, there is still a lot of work to be completed before we can welcome children and families back into the hospice."

So far, £2.5m has been raised towards their £4m target, which is needed to fully refurbish the hospice.

Currently, children from Naomi House are using temporary bedrooms in Jacksplace while their bedrooms are being expanded.

Work is due to be finished in April 2015.

First to mark 50 years fire fighting

By Mathew Di Salvo
mathew@taylornewspapers.co.uk

HAMPSHIRE Fire and Rescue service's longest serving fire fighter and officer marked 50 years of helping save lives in the county.

Martyn Long, 67, who took charge of Basingstoke's fire station for two years, said "no day is ever the same".

During his 50 years Mr Long has battled the biggest fires in the county including a Winchester Guildhall blaze in 1969 and given a helping hand in the "Great Storm" of 1987.

He still works as a contingency planning officer for the service in Southampton.

He said: "If anyone had suggested in 1964 that I would still be working for the fire service in 50 years I would have laughed out loud."

Mr Long served as officer in charge at Basingstoke fire station from 1983 to 1984, and at stations in Farnborough, Lyndhurst and Aldershot.

He added: "Basingstoke was a great place to work, there were a huge number of people working at the station, around 20 people on the watch. It was a really good crew.

"Being the officer in charge at Basingstoke gave me really good grounding for my career, it was a very busy station and there were plenty of incidents during my time there."

Mr Long was handed a long service medal by current chief officer John Bonney at the service's Winchester HQ on September 18 - an award that has never been given before.

He added: "I left school aged 17 not knowing what career path I wanted to follow.

"I have had, and still have many good friends in the service, and the various jobs have been hugely fulfilling and interesting.

"The service has been very good to me and I do not regret joining all those years ago."

He added: "Things have changed so much since I first started in 1964.

"The equipment used has changed beyond recognition, it is all very sophisticated now."

He also welcomed the plans for the new £6million fire station in Basingstoke.

"The station was built in the 60s, and it is showing its age, so a new building is necessary," he said.

The current chief officer, John Bonney, said: "It is a real accolade to Martyn and I thank him for his dedicated commitment to the service."

MP warns: UK in war with one hand tied

BASINGSTOKE MP Maria Miller warned air strikes in Iraq may be "tying one hand behind the back" of UK armed forces by not also launching air strikes in Syria.

By Mathew Di Salvo
mathew@taylornewspapers.co.uk

She was speaking after voting for UK military action in the air against Jihadist extremists of Islamic State (IS) when Parliament was recalled on Friday.

But Mrs Miller joined other voices warning action in Syria against IS – also called the Islamic State of Iraq and the Levant (ISIL) - could also be necessary.

"The problem is that ISIL is not an organisation that regards country boundaries as important so my only concern about the vote was that in precluding Syria from proceedings, we may be tying one hand behind the back of our armed forces in trying to do the job that we have asked them to do," she told the Observer.

"It is better that Britain is there playing our part in support of the Iraqi nation than not being there at all."

Mrs Miller voted for action alongside 523 other MPs against 43 after a six and a half hour debate.

Prime Minister David Cameron has said Parliament would be called again for another vote before any military action launched in Syria.

IS has captured large parts of Syria and Iraq in recent months and is pushing towards Iraq's capital Baghdad from the west.

And Mrs Miller supported harsher measures against UK nationals leaving to fight for IS.

She said: "There are estimated to be up to 500 UK nationals involved in training connected with the extremist organisation and I think that the important action the government needs to take is that anyone undertaking training with the organisation should not be allowed back into the country, and that in doing so they really do jeopardise their right to be able to call themselves British citizens."

She added: "It is obvious for everyone to see that ISIL is a vile and disgusting organisation and we have to play our part in destroying the evil extremists."

UKIP's offerings for voters

THIS week we have seen the end of the Labour and Conservative party conference.

Sandwiched between the two was the one I went to, UKIP in Doncaster.

By far the biggest conference UKIP has ever put on and with news of another MP defecting, it will be one of the most remembered ones.

Whatever you think about UKIP and its followers there is no doubt that it is growing at a speed the other two parties were not expecting.

Around 2,000 people from all walks of life and political backgrounds melting in the same pot.

Our views have morphed from an obscure range of ideals to a coherent answer to the other parties - no longer are we the "one issue party" of previous years.

Our immigration policy stacks up - we don't want to stop it, just control it.

Zero tax for minimum wage earners, reducing tax for England's middle earners.

This will let people keep more of what they earn, encouraging a benefit-free lifestyle.

Scrapping inheritance tax - why on earth should anyone who has paid tax all their lives have to pay tax when they die?

Removing foreign aid from countries that are abusing it.

We give India £280,000,000 in aid and they can afford their own space program.

We plan to remove layers of bureaucratic money-munchers from the NHS, putting the money back into front line staff - keeping it as free now as it has always been.

New arrivals and holiday-makers will have to have health insurance, ending "health tourism".

We plan to stop new arrivals claiming any benefits for the first five years, after all why should our tax money subsidise Europe's unemployed?

22-year-old stroke survivor runs 10k

A STROKE survivor from Basingstoke has recovered to run 10k to raise awareness for young stroke victims.

Bex Jennings, 22, of Hatch Warren, ran the Hyde Park Resolution Run in London on September 22 to raise funds for the Stroke Association.

Bex was out with her boyfriend in 2013 when she had her stroke which resulted in the left side of her body being paralysed.

She made a full recovery and was determined to help other stroke sufferers.

She said: "When I had my stroke, I was terrified.

"My grandma has had a stroke, so vmy parents, who were with my grandma at the time, realised I needed help fast.

"I wanted to run for the Stroke Association as I now know how important it is that people recognise the symptoms of stroke and react quickly.

"At 22 I thought I was too young to be having a stroke, so dismissed the very important signs.

"I want to urge all young people to be aware of stroke."

Over 500 people took part in the run on the day.

Bex added: "Running the Hyde Park Resolution Run was a big challenge, but I was determined to do it.

"The atmosphere on the day was brilliant, it was fantastic to see everyone come together to help conquer stroke.

"The Stroke Association supports survivors and their families, and I wanted to make sure that they can continue their vital work."

Bex has now raised over £1,200 for the charity.

To donate, visit Bex's charity page: justgiving.com/bexton-estephlauren.

ON the eve of a long-awaited £11.2million overhaul of Black Dam roundabout, residents raised fears of traffic mayhem.

By Mathew Di Salvo
mathew@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Major road improvements to turn the junction into a hamburger roundabout are due to start on Monday, October 13.

At a public exhibition of the plans at Basingstoke's Discovery Centre last week, residents were told although most work would be done overnight congestion is inevitable.

A Highways Agency spokesman – who asked not to be named – said: "There may be some problems in the short term while the work is being done but it will make a big improvement in the long term."

Four new lanes are to be built through the centre of the roundabout northbound to free up the flow of traffic.

Roads on the east and west side of the junction will also be widened to create four and five lanes respectively.

While the spur road southbound from Black Dam roundabout to the M3 junction 6 is also to be widened – to three lanes.

The improvement aim to remedy the major Basingstoke pinch point and allow the town to cope with the demand for more houses.

Councillor Paul Miller, of Chineham, said: "I am feeling a little more comfortable with the project now.

"But the biggest fear councillors and I have is that there will be traffic delays during the road works.

"I hope the road works will take place at night and not during the rush hours.

"I don't have a good feeling about that."

Preparation work for the project started in January this year, before proper roadworks begin on October 13.

They are due to last until summer 2015.

Nearby residents are to get newsletter updates of the redevelopments progress.

Robin Hood with a twist

THE people of Basingstoke are spoilt with the variety of entertainment on offer in the town.

By James Richings
jamesr@taylornewspapers.co.uk

And to continue this trend, comedians Su Pollard, Bobby Ball and Tommy Cannon will bring their show 'Ha, Ha, Hood And the Prince of Leaves' to The Anvil on October 12, as part of their UK tour.

The Sheriff of Nottingham has been in prison for 10 years, so when he is released, he wants to get even with Robin by marrying his once true love Marian.

Guy of Gisborne discovers this plan and tells Marian the Sheriff is coming to do them all in, which is where the drama unfolds.

Pollard, who plays Marian in the production, said she can't wait to work with comedy duo Cannon and Ball,

"I think it's an excellent bit of casting because they have a lot of stage experience and will bring a real strength to the show - they're such great double act."

Pollard, 65, became a household name during the 1980's and 1990's after starring in sitcoms such as, 'You Rang, M' Lord' and 'Hi-de-Hi!'

The popular comedian has also had success in the music industry, with her 1986 hit, 'Starting Together', which reached number two in the charts.

Her decision to be part of this production was down to the reputation of the creator, Ben Langley.

She said: "I knew that the 'Ha Ha! Productions' had a fantastic cult following, and that the creator Ben Langley had a good reputation."

Pollard described why she loves performing in front of a live audience.

"The buzz, I love it," she said.

"The audience are right there with you, and you're taking them on a journey. You're doing it for them at that very moment in time.

"That's a special feeling. You give your all every night and get so much back. You can't beat live theatre."

Madama Butterfly opera

REGARDED as one of the most powerful operas of all time 'Madama Butterfly' is poised to blow Basingstoke away at the Anvil on Sunday.

By James Richings
jamesr@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Created by Italian composer Giacomo Puccini in the early 1900's, the moving performance tells the tale of a beautiful Japanese girl, who falls in love with an American naval lieutenant.

The opera, which is split into three acts, could make the hairs on the back of your neck stand with its acting, singing and heart-breaking storyline.

Starring in the production will be Ukrainian actor Ruslan Zinevych, portraying as Lieutenant B.F. Pinkerton in the United States Navy.

Zinevych, who has won many singing competitions all over Europe, told the Basingstoke Observer getting into character as Lieutenant B.F. Pinkerton was 'quite easy but also difficult'.

"Every role takes time to really get into it seriously," he said.

"It's a real pleasure performing any one of Puccini's roles, so that makes it quite easy to perform.

"However, at the same time it's difficult to put yourself into a different character - your vision, feeling, and expression."

Starring as one of the main roles in this production will mean a lot to Zinevych, as the Ukrainian actor has had to escape his country's current conflict to pursue his acting dream.

Zinevych said: "I've been a soloist at the Odessa Opera House since 1994, but I've always mixed my Ukrainian work with my international artistic career.

"My theatre and my country educated me as an artist and as a human being.

I've always respected my Ukrainian teachers. Obviously, an artistic life is full of up and downs, but as soon as you are heading towards your target, your Lord will always lead you there."

"Regarding the current political situation, I think now it is the time when our nation - mentally and from the heart - is becoming a real united country. We have to overcome this war brought to us from outside.

"People will finally start feeling themselves as Ukrainian, not Soviet, not Russian anymore.

"Now the time is arriving of the real end of the soviet world."

'Madama Butterfly' has been directed by Ellen Kent, who has directed and produced productions such as Carmen, Nutcracker, Sleeping Beauty and Swan Lake.

Zinevych added: "We have worked together for many years and Ellen has taught me many professional secrets."

The performance on Sunday, October 5, starts from 7.30pm.

Car giant's latest sporty number brimming with style and ready to launch next year

Land Rover's newest model

REVIEW: Land Rover Discovery Sport

By James Richings

IN 1948, Great Britain was introduced to a brand new car manufacturer based around the Jeep which was used during World War II - the Land Rover.

And 66 years on, the car has gone through many models such as the Range Rover, the Land Rover Defender and the Land Rover Discovery.

To follow on from their successes, the UK-based manufacturer has announced a new Discovery Sport to be released in the early stages of 2015.

The Discovery Sport will be the first member of a new Discovery family.

Gerry McGovern, Land Rover's design director and Chief Creative Officer said: "Our challenge has been to combine premium design with exceptional versatility; the two attributes must work in harmony.

"I'm proud to say we've achieved that; Discovery Sport's dynamic design will resonate on an emotional level with consumers, and this vehicle is more versatile than any other premium compact SUV on the market."

It will be equipped with the powerful and refined 2.2 litre SD4 turbo-diesel engine producing 190 PS.

This will also feature stop-start technology, high-pressure direct injection, low-friction internal components and smart regenerative charging for outstanding performance and economy.

Both nine-speed automatic and six-speed manual transmissions will be available.

Later in 2015, a highly efficient two wheel drive eD4 turbo-diesel engine will join the range with CO2 emissions from just 119g/km.

A service plan will be available from launch in the UK, offering five years or 50,000 miles worth of servicing - whichever is sooner - at an approved service centre, for a one-off fee of £499.

A host of innovations have allowed Discovery Sport to introduce the versatility of 5+2 seating into the premium compact SUV class for the first time.

An all-new multi-link rear axle not only provides engaging driving dynamics but it also provides ample and flexible cabin space behind the second row.

Coupled with supple long-travel suspension, the innovative rear axle also ensures the Discovery Sport is comfortable, refined and rewarding to drive on-road, while retaining the breadth of all-terrain capability for which Land Rover is world-renowned.

Safety has been one key priority in the development of the Discovery Sport, with a first-in-class pedestrian airbag, emergency braking, and a body shell with both ultra-high-strength steel and lightweight aluminium.

And the advanced technology is put to its uses with a new an all-new eight-inch touch screen infotainment system, and standard tilt-and-slide row-two seating for maximum interior configurability.

When the vehicle is due for release early next year, prices will range from under £30,000 for eD4 variant up to £32,395 (SD4) from January 2015.

Taking care of your motor

FASTFIT Service Centre is celebrating its tenth anniversary at Unit One, Moniton Trading Estate in West Ham Lane.

And the independent automotive specialist is proud to be expanding in a bid to give its customers exactly what they want. "Everything your car needs is here under one roof", explained manager Byron Lewis who, like his team of experts, has spent a lifetime in the automotive industry.

He added: At Fastfit we offer hourly rates which are some of the best in Basingstoke. No job is beyond us and we are quite simply a one-stop shop and more besides. Whether it's and entire engine overhaul or just tweaking the brakes. we will do it, and do it well."

The business is continually expanding and includes a new mobile tyre fitting and home start service. A comprehensive diagnostic service can also be provided and the business issues many dealer level tools ranging from Ford, Jaguar to Land Rover and Volkswagen.

Fastfit offers everything from MOTs and minor servicing to major repairs and complex engine work.

More complex issues include an Engine Control Unit (ECU) remapping service which makes the vehicle more responsive and smoother to driver. In these tough time, it also slightly increases the miles-per-gallon!

Fastfit Service Centre also stocks a rang of budget or performance tyres and it can also custom build stainless steel exhaust systems.

"Come and give us a try. You won't be disappointed," concluded Byron.

What our customers think

• My car had been taken to three different repair centres which was suffering from low power none of them diagnosed the problem. I took it to these guys for a remap and full exhaust in the hopes it would fix it. It was better but Byron still thought it wasn't right so spent another couple of hours diagnosing it! He didn't charge me extra and even finished after they should of closed. You just don't get that kind of service these days. Amazing!
Cheers,
Clive Baldwin

• Great service from the whole of the Fast Fit team. They know what they are talking about and are happy to help with any query.
I wanted something activated on my car that was not activated at the factory. A dealer wanted upwards of £100 to do the job, I contacted Fast Fit and they have the same Dealer Software. Done the job quick and for a third of the price!
These guys definitely know what they're talking about and I would recommend them to anyone!
Chris H

• Excellent service! Very polite and great value for money prices! I will recommend to friends and family. If you need your car repaired at the right price don't look any further.

Rose swings big to help bag Ryder Cup for Europe

JUSTIN Rose stayed unbeaten in the Ryder Cup at the weekend as Europe beat the USA 16½ points to 11½ at Scotland's Gleneagles course.

His partnership with Swede Henrik Stenson on Friday saw the pair beat Bubba Watson and Webb Simpson by five points in the opening match of the competition.

They followed up their success in the afternoon by beating Jim Furyk and Matt Kuchar by two points, before triumphing over Watson and Kuchar on Saturday morning by three points.

With Stenson rested for the afternoon, Rose teamed up with Germany's Martin Kaymer, and managed to half their match against Jordan Speith and Patrick Reed despite being one hole down going into the 18th.

And Rose made another comeback in the singles on Sunday, as he came from four points behind to level his match with Hunter Mahan on the last hole.

Rose was one of just three players in the European side not to lose a match, and contributed four points to their total.

The next Ryder Cup is scheduled to take place in September 2016 at the Hazeltine National Golf Club in Minnesota, USA.

Collard crawls clean from chilling smash

TOURING car driver Rob Collard survived a terrifying smash which saw his car flip into the air after being tagged by another competitor at Silverstone on Sunday.

The West Surrey Racing driver had slipped down the field in race two as his soft tyres wore out, when he came across the out-of-control car of Jack Clarke.

As Collard tried to get past Clarke, the back of his BMW was tagged and flung into the air, rolling multiple times before coming to a stop on the roof.

The race was halted as a result and Collard was taken to hospital for precautionary checks, but suffered no lasting injuries.

"I was bracing myself for that initial hit on the roof and my natural instinct was to just hang on," said Collard.

"The marshals got to the car very quickly and got me out – they did a great job, as did the entire medical team."

It came after Collard finished in seventh after the opening race, but the accident meant he did not take part in the final contest of the day.

adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

And doubts remain over whether the car will be ready for the season finale at Brands Hatch on October 12, although Collard is optimistic it will be ready.

He added: "I'm absolutely ready to get back in the car and I'd race tomorrow if I could, but I'm not sure the car will be.

"If any team can get the car ready for Brands Hatch then it's West Surrey Racing, but it will take a monumental effort from everyone."

Meanwhile, team-mate Nick Foster had better luck and was able to add to his points total .

He came 15th in both the first and third races of the day, and 16th in race two.

"It was hard work out there," said Foster. "I felt we did a decent job given the circuit does not necessarily suit our car.

"I'm just hugely relieved that my buddy Rob is okay though after his massive crash."

Collard dropped a place to sixth in the British Touring Car Championship standings after Sunday, while Foster remains in 16th place.

Bison stay top of league in unbeaten run

BASINGSTOKE Bison continued their unbeaten start to the season on Saturday with a win against Telford Tigers at home, although it took penalty shots to split the two sides.

Both sides had won all of their previous league fixtures this season going into the match, and sat at the top of the English Ice Hockey Premier League table.

Tomas Karpov got Bison off the mark in the first period, before Telford's Nathan Salem equalised shortly after the first break.

And the score remained 1-1 for the remainder of the match, with both defences holding firm to deny any more goals.

The five-minute overtime period also failed to find a winner so the game went to penalties with a best-of-three contest.

Bison netminder Dean Skinns saved Scott McKenzie's and Peter Szabo's shots, while Joe Rand missed his first effort for the Herd.

But Ciaran Long was able to give the hosts the advantage, before Skinns saved former Bison Joe Miller's effort to secure the win for Basingstoke.

The result means Bison stay top of the table with eight points from their opening four matches, with reigning champions Manchester Phoenix a point behind in second, but having played two games more than them.

Bison return to action this weekend, as they face Guildford Flames at home on Saturday before travelling to Invicta Dynamos on Sunday.

Football leagues

WHITCHURCH United ensured they won every game they played in September, as they beat Pewsey Vale 3-0 in the Wessex League Cup on Saturday.

The Jam Boys have had a strong start to the season, with their only defeat in the current campaign coming against Hallen FC in the FA Cup back in August.

They were third in the Wessex Premier Division standings with 20 points and in action against Horndean last night as the Observer went to press.

Elsewhere, Hartley Wintney were beaten 2-0 at home to Camberley Town in the Combined Counties Premier league.

Wintney have now lost two of their last three league matches, and are currently 10th in the standings with 13 points.

And Tadley Calleva enjoyed an emphatic 6-0 victory against Ringwood Town to keep their unbeaten record going in Wessex Division One.

Wintney and Calleva are in FA Vase action on Saturday as they travel to Highworth Town and Hook Norton respectively, while Whitchurch host Newport (Isle of Wight) in the league.

RFC comeback

BASINGSTOKE RFC won a close match against Chobham on Saturday, taking the victory by 37 points to 36.

'Stoke had been 17-13 down on the road at Chobham, but rallied to take the lead with two minutes remaining, before a Chobham penalty hit the post in the dying moments to secure the win.

It means that 'Stoke move up to third in the London 1 South standings with 16 points, two behind league leaders Sidcup.

They are due to host Gosport and Fareham in the next match on Saturday.

Matches against Brighton, Sidcup and Charlton Park follow for 'Stoke up until the end of October, with the season due to finish on April 18.

Town into next round of FA Cup after beating Bridgwater

BRISTOW EAGER FOR 'TOUGH TIE'

FIRST half goals from Liam Enver-Marum and Simon Dunn were enough to send Basingstoke Town into the third qualifying round of the FA Cup with a 2-0 win over Bridgwater Town last Saturday.

Basingstoke were in control from the start over their Division One South & West opponents and found themselves 2-0 up inside half an hour.

Enver-Marum fired Town ahead from 20 yards on seven minutes before Dunn thumped the ball into the top corner from range to all but end the match.

Basingstoke now face fellow Conference South side Ebbsfleet United in the next round on October 11, and Bristow described it as one of the ties of the round.

He said: "It is one of the toughest ties we could have got.

"But we've already played them so we know enough about them to believe that we can go there and progress.

"It is a good tie in that respect because we know it will be a fantastic atmosphere and they get good support and I am sure we will take a few fans as well.

"You look through all the draws that have been made and it is probably one of the ties of the round, it is certainly one we will be looking forward to."

Bristow named an unchanged side to the one that beat league leaders Boreham Wood a week earlier and Town's manager said he did not want to give an impression that he was taking the tie lightly.

He added: "We learned from lessons in the past and knew mentally we had to approach the game right.

"We felt sending the same team out sends a message that this isn't an easy game and the funny thing was it was actually a very comfortable game in the end.

"It was a pleasing afternoon's work."

Basingstoke, who are currently third in the Conference South, face Concord Rangers this Saturday looking to extend their unbeaten run to three games in all competitions.

Bristow said: "It will be very tough.

"They adapted very well to the league last year and I think they are a good side."
